SAUVIGNON BLANC

Sauvignon Blanc originates from Bordeaux in France but has success all over the world. French Sauvignon Blancs are renowned for its crisp elegant styles while New Zealand is better known for their more vibrant and zesty styles. South Africa has started to produce some real award winners and have certainly ruffled some feathers on the global stage.

Franschhoek Cellars '15 (Paarl, South Africa) 36
Domaine Guenault 'Touraine' '15 (Loire Valley, France) 46
Hunter's '15 (Marlborough, New Zealand) 48

PINOT GRIGIO/GRIS

One of the biggest success stories of recent years and arguably the number one selling grape in Canada. Italy has had the most success with this grape where it produces an easy drinking uncomplicated style. It is certainly worth exploring the grape under its new world moniker Pinot Gris. We think our Mission Hill Pinot Gris from British Columbia is particularly good.

Fontamara Pinot Grigio '15 (Abruzzo, Italy) 36
Mission Hill Reserve Pinot Gris '15 (Okanaghan Valley, BC) 48

CHARDONNAY

The Chardonnay grape is incredibly versatile. However we decided to keep it simple and haven't ventured any further than California with two of our full flavoured, light oak favourites.

Solid Ground Chardonnay '15 (Central Coast, California) 40
St Francis Chardonnay '15 (Sonoma, California) 58

AROMATICS

For those who enjoy the spice of life. These wines are flavoursome and fragrant, but all have their own distinctive voice. Try the floral Gewurztraminer of Alsace, the crisp green apple of the Ontario Riesling or the Ripe tropical notes of the Chenin Blanc from the Vouvray of France.

SPANISH REDS

Tempranillo is considered by many to be the noble variety of Spain and it certainly seems to have found its home in Rioja. For a brooding alternative to our Malbec from Argentina why not try our Garnacha. Looking to take it up a notch and don't want a Cab or Shiraz, then our Monastrell won't disappoint.

Gil Laya Garnacha '15 (Almansa, Spain) 42
A surprising blend of Grenache, Alicante & Monastrell
Enrique Mendoza 'La Tremenda' Monastrell '14 (Alicante, Spain) 58

CABERNET & MERLOT

Two grape varieties that work very well together as epitomised by the finest Bordeaux wines but can also stand on their own two feet. Cabernet Sauvignon is bigger and bolder and can be a force to be reckoned with, but don't under-estimate the softer rounder Merlot as it can also show huge complexity, like the Mission Hill Merlot from BC.

Les Jamelles 'Essentiel' Merlot '15 (Languedoc, France) 40
Silk Oak Cabernet Sauvignon '15 (Lodi, California) 44
Andeluna Cabernet Sauvignon '16 (Mendoza, Argentina) 48
Mission Mill Merlot Reserve '14 (Okanaghan Valley, BC) 52
Girard Cabernet Sauvignon '12 (Napa, California) 95

PINOT NOIR

They say if you want to lose money hand over fist in the vinyard, plant Pinot Noir. It is a notoriously difficult variety to grow but with a lot of TLC it can produce some phenomenal wines from the sublime and silky old world style of the Rosehall Run from Prince Edward County to the richer cherry fruits of the Southern Hemisphere.

Echelon Pinot Noir '15 (Central Coast, California) 40
Opawa Pinot Noir '15 (Marlborough, New Zealand) 50
Rosehall Run Pinot Noir '14 (Prince Edward County, Ontario) 52

SHIRAZ/SYRAH & PETITE SIRAH

Originating in the Rhone Valley in France this varietal has travelled worldwide and seen particular success in Australia. Shiraz/Syrah or Petite Sirah can take on a huge range of guises from the fruity and spicy Syrah from Washington State to the vibrant inkiness of the Petite Sirah from Lodi in California.

Chalk Hill 'Wits End' Shiraz '15 (McLaren Vale) 44
Whispering Tree Syrah '14 (Washington State, USA) 48
Black Bear Red Chair Petite Sirah '13 (Lodi, California) 60
Langmeil 'Valley Floor' Shiraz '13 (Barossa Valley, Australia) 60

INTERESTING VARIETALS & UNIQUE BLENDS

It is always difficult to put such a varied range under one heading especially with such diversity as this. Why not try our First Edition Carmenere from Chile or opt one of our two distinctly different blends from California. Looking for something different, then experience the unique Tannat, from Uruguay, offering a mouth-watering concentration of flavours.

Cinco Sentido's Malbec '14 (Mendoza, Argentina) 40
Ca'Momi Rosso di Napa '13 (Napa Valley, California) 48
